

EDUCATIUS GROUP: A GLOBAL LEADER

For over 12 years, Educatius Group has welcomed students from around the world to academic programs worldwide. As a trusted and respected organization, we are a true global leader in the field of international education. With offices and experienced local partners around the world, we offer American schools the opportunity to diversify their student body with qualified, tuition-paying students. Last year alone, we sent 4,500 students from all over the world to our global partner schools.

Why Choose Educatius Group

As the largest and most experienced recruiting organization in the industry, we offer:

Extensive Experience

- Since 2003, Educatius Group has recruited worldwide to place thousands of students each year into high schools in the USA.
- We partner with over 250 high schools including boarding, private day and public districts; and over 100 private and public colleges and universities.

Global Diversity

- With sales and support offices in over 15 key countries (including Sweden, Italy, Spain, Germany, Brazil, China, Vietnam, and many more), Educatius works with over 500 local partners to bring you students from around the world.
- Last year, we welcomed students from over 50 countries to USA F1 high school programs including Brazil, Spain, Norway, Germany, Italy, and China.

Established Host Family Program

- Our extensive host family network ensures that every student is safe and happy in their host family and that schools and students are supported.
- We are proud to be listed by CSIET (www.csiet.org) for our F1 inbound programs with host family. Our internal Quality Control division ensures that all students are placed in quality homes.

Knowledgeable Staff

- Our Boston based staff includes educators who have worked in private and public schools as teachers, coaches, administrators, and superintendents – with over 100 years combined experience.
- Experts in their local markets, our international staff provides invaluable country-specific knowledge, networks and market reach.

High Quality and Prepared Students

- We work with schools and their specific admissions criteria to ensure that students are qualified and well matched with the school environment.
- Our local offices review and verify all student applicants.
- We provide a thorough orientation for all Day School students before they arrive.

Expert China Presence

- Our 3 fully staffed offices in Beijing, Shanghai and Guangzhou together with our network of hundreds of local partners throughout China, ensure you get qualified, top-notch Chinese applicants.

Ongoing School Support

- Our team in the USA and abroad supports our schools throughout the entire international student process – from promotion and recruitment, to assisting with applications, placing students in host families, providing academic support if needed and managing the overall well-being of the student.

Educatius College and University Services (ECUS)

- We offer college counseling and advising assistance for ALL F1 students at our partner schools.
- Through our expansive network of colleges and universities, we can guarantee scholarships for your students.

Educatius offers all the benefits of a worldwide organization while still providing personal attention and care to every student and every school.

OUR COMMITMENT TO CARING

We believe in giving back and improving lives through education! Through our sister nonprofit organization, AiDucatius, we provide educational support to children in Africa and Latin America. Ask us how your school can get involved!

We believe in building a better cultural understanding between nations and people. By offering safe and exciting ways for young people to fulfill their dreams of discovering a new culture through learning, we help create better global citizens while contributing to an improved quality of life for those less fortunate.
