SCHOOL PROFILE

Bodwell High School is a private, co-educational boarding school offering grades 8 to 12, and university preparation. Located in beautiful North Vancouver, British Columbia, Canada, Bodwell's campus overlooks the Burrard Inlet and the beautiful Vancouver skyline. Recognized as a leader among Canadian boarding schools, the school's diverse student population of both local and international students makes it a rich and exciting place to learn, study, play, and build life long memories and friendships. In addition, the school offers enrichment classes on Saturday, such as master chef, life guard, career explore, and diverse sports.

FACILITIES

Bodwell's campus is completely modern, with facilities that include a multipurpose gym, indoor swimming pool, a tennis court, a presentation theatre, music rooms, library, and computer rooms. The cafeteria has been enlarged with a 2-storey high curtain wall, and a rooftop with a garden patio connected to the library. The entire school is equipped with wireless internet capabilities allowing for freedom of movement and access to information anywhere on campus.

COMMUNITY INFORMATION

With its scenic views, mild climate, and friendly people, Vancouver is known around the world as both a popular tourist attraction and one of the best places to live. Vancouver is also one of the most ethnically and linguistically diverse cities in Canada with 52 percent of the population speaking a first language other than English. Vancouver has hosted many international conferences and events, including the 2010 Winter Olympics and 2010 Winter Paralympics.
