SCHOOL PROFILE

Founded in 1994, Iroquois Ridge High School (IRHS) is considered one of the top public school in Ontario. The school offers many challenging academics courses students can take, including an array of technology courses for students interested in building or technology design. Special programs at the school include dual credit courses, two Special High Skills Majors (SHSMs) in Business and Visual Arts, and a French Immersion programme.

FACILITIES

IRHS offers modern classroom and beautiful work spaces for students. Giving the impression of walking between two buildings, the main hallway is nickname the "The Street" because of the planted trees, old fashion street lighting, and windowed classroom. The school also has two art rooms, two music rooms, an auto workshop, an athletic fitness center, athletic fields, and numerous computer labs.

SPORTS AND ARTS

Students can participate in more than 15 different team and individual sports. In 2018, the IRHS Boys Hockey team qualified for and competed in the 34th annual Bur Bear High School Hockey Tournament. The hockey programme has also produced NHL players such as Victor Oreskovich. For creative students, IRHS offers curricular and extra-curricular arts courses of students. Music students can join several different types of concert bands and choirs. Several actors have studied at IRHS, including Danial Clark (Degrassi and Juno) and Jasmine Richards (Camp Rock)

AWARDS AND ACCOMPLISHMENTS

In 2018, Iroquois Ridge High School was ranked the #12 high school in Ontario by the Fraser Institute. The school has also been honored for its fundraising efforts by 4 Hunger Food Drive, Stephen Lewis Foundation, and Relay for Life.
