SCHOOL PROFILE

Located on 725 acres of land, Salisbury School is an all-boys private boarding school in western New England. The school challenges students with many Advanced Placement and Honors courses as well as special programs in entrepreneurial studies and media studies.

FACILITIES

The spacious campus has state-of-art classrooms. Media labs are equipped with the latest technology including DSLR cameras, green screens, professional lighting, and photo and video editing tools.

SPORTS AND ARTS

Students can join many athletic teams while attending Salisbury School including football, basketball, hockey, soccer, squash, sailing, and more. Athletic trainers are also available to help promote the health of student athletes.

Curricular and extracurricular activities are available for students who are interested in the fine arts. The state-of-the-art Ruger Fine Arts Center and Field Music Center is accessible twenty-four hours a day for students to practice and craft their creative works.

COMMUNITY INFORMATION

Students live in modern dorms and have access to a health center, located on campus. The school organizes weekend activities such as laser tag, shopping, and excursion trips. After class, the student center is stocked with snacks, large TV's, a pool-table, and a ping pong table for students to hang-out.
