SCHOOL PROFILE

Las Virgenes Unified School District proudly hosts some of the best high schools in California. The district's high schools have an impressive 94% of students accepted to college. The district is located only 20 minutes from Malibu's prestigious Pepperdine University.

FACILITIES

The high school campuses take advantage of the year-round sunny, temperate weather with grassy quads and outdoor park-like settings. Facilities include athletic stadiums, Olympic-style pools, and media and performing arts centers.

SPORTS AND ARTS

The rigorous athletics program has produced athletes that have gone on to participate at the collegiate, professional, and even Olympic level. One of the high schools has an especially strong wrestling program, with the team qualifying for the divisional championships 21 years in a row.

The arts program is also impressive and has produced several professional entertainers such as Danielle Fishel of Boy Meets World, Ricky Schroder of NYPD Blue along with three cofounders of the band Linkin Park.

AWARDS AND ACCOMPLISHMENTS

One of the schools in the district is a National Blue Ribbon School and California Distinguished School, an honor given only to the highest ranked schools in the state.

COMMUNITY INFORMATION

The city of Calabasas has recently become well known for being the home of the famous Kardashian family. An affluent community of approximately 24,000 residents, it's a 40-minute drive from Los Angeles' many entertainment and cultural opportunities. Calabasas is centrally located with access to beaches, hiking, mountain biking, and other outdoor activities.
