SCHOOL PROFILE

Erie First Christian Academy is a private, boarding and college preparatory school accepting international students from grades 8 through 12. The beautifully designed campus is located in Pennsylvania on the northwestern shores of Lake Erie.

FACILITIES

The campus provides modern classrooms and buildings including newly constructed housing facility, science lab, technology/computer lab, drama and music facilities, sports fields, a large indoor gymnasium, workout areas and youth/activities center - resources that together create a place where healthy minds, bodies and spirits can thrive.

SPORTS AND ARTS

Students can chose to participate in interscholastic sports, intramural athletic programs and leagues such as kayaking, horseback riding and cycling.

Students are also encouraged to get involved in Erie's arts program by joining courses like drama, chorus, praise band and yearbook design.

DORMITORIES AND STUDENT LIFE

Students live together with faculty house parents and staff workers in a boarding facility that was completed in 2010. There are common areas, a laundry facility, and internet. International students will find more than a dormitory, they will find a home.
