A VIBRANT CO-EDUCATIONAL SCHOOL IN THE TOWN OF SWORDS, LOCATED JUST NORTH OF DUBLIN CITY!

Setting high standards, creating high expectations, St. Finian's Community College strives to nurture the development of all its students academically, physically and emotionally in a warm and caring environment.

The school strives to offer a holistic education with teachers, students and parents working hard to pursue excellence not only on an academic level but on the development of the whole student. This is achieved thanks to the school's professional, dedicated and committed team of teachers, a wide and varied curriculum, and a high standard of innovative teaching methodologies delivered through modern technologies. Beyond the classroom, St. Finian's has plenty to offer its students. In particular, the school has great links to the local community and participates in the Co. Dublin Festival of Music every year, making it an ideal choice for musical students.

International students receive a warm welcome at St. Finian's and strong systems are in place to support them with their English. School management and staff have a strong commitment to providing an inclusive learning environment that promotes student achievement.

DUBLIN

Dublin is a small capital city with a big reputation and is renowned for being one of the most lively and welcoming cities in the world! Youthful and cosmopolitan, it is the perfect location choice for international high school students who want to experience Irish life in an exciting fast-paced environment. With charming cobbled streets, quirky boutiques and world-class attractions and museums, Dublin offers endless possibilities for fun and learning. It's also easy for students to explore outside the city, thanks to excellent transport connections both to the seaside and to other Irish cities. The city's beautiful eastern coastline is the perfect place to enjoy long walks, fish & chips and breathtaking views.
